

Apprenticeship in ELECTRONICS AND COMMUNICATIONS

Step into the exciting and varied world of electronics as you learn a range of technical repair and maintenance skills. Be prepared for a career as an electronics technician or tradesperson. Electronics and communications technicians diagnose faults and repair electronic devices, including audiovisual, broadcast, business and medical equipment. Electronics and communications technicians may work in workshops, private homes or manufacturers' factories.

EARN while you LEARN

1st Year
from $27k

HUNTERNET
CAREER CONNECTIONS
Developing skills for success

4th Year
up to $52k

APPLY NOW

hcc@hunternet.com.au
hunternetcc.com.au
(02) 4062 7860

Apprenticeship in ELECTRONICS AND COMMUNICATIONS

Benefits:

- No fees - earn while you learn
- Nationally recognised qualification
- Hands on training
- One on one mentoring and support
- All uniforms and PPE supplied
- Work with the best in Industry

Skill Requirement:

- Enjoy mathematical and technical activities
- Good hand-eye coordination
- Good eyesight (may be corrected) and normal colour vision
- Aptitude for mechanics and electronics
- Able to do precise and detailed work
- Good communication skills

Day to day duties may include:

- Carry out general duties such as running network/data cables, fault finding and working on autonomous vehicles
- Work in an open cut mining environment
- Use hand tools, battery operated tools and specialist tools of the trade
- Assist qualified tradesmen
- Carry out other duties that are within the limits of apprentice skills, competence and ability as required
- Research, design and develop electronic equipment used in different systems.
- Look after the manufacturing of communication and broadcast systems.
- Conceptualize and design electronic equipment like radio, television, computer.
- Develop control and communications systems.
- Work with equipment like circuit breakers, cables, transmission lines and others.
- Provide support for telecom equipment.
- Update and repair existing systems and devices

What we are looking for:

- Be able to work as part of a team
- Show commitment to both on and off the job training
- Have confident communication skills, both written and verbal
- Be reliable, punctual and be able to follow instructions
- Show a demonstrated passion and interest in the trade you are applying for
- Current drivers licence (or close to obtaining)

HUNTERNET
CAREER CONNECTIONS
Developing skills for success

