

WE KNOW RECRUITMENT.
EXPERIENCE PEOPLEFUSION.

With April being a short month, you might think things quietened down a little at the peoplefusion office, in fact it was quite the opposite! Yes, some of our incredible team members were able to take a well deserved break after a busy first quarter, but amongst the relaxation:

- We welcomed a new Recruitment Coordinator to the team, Neve Finlayson;
- we were thrilled to support the HunterNet Awards, sponsoring the Networking Award for the evening;
- and we received some phenomenal news about our wonderful Chelsea Farrar, Senior Recruitment Specialist, named as a Finalist in the RCSA Industry Awards, taking place next month.
- plus, our Temporary and Contract recruitment experts Amy King and Jane Lynch shared some great insights on the benefits of temping for both clients and candidates over on our LinkedIn page, with Temp Talk Tuesdays, you can view part one here, and part two here.

In Current Conversations, fresh from leave, we discuss why your best work starts with real rest, discover why taking leave matters and how to make your comeback count.

And in Top Talent, the holidays have resulted in an increase in candidate registrations, our consultants have met with a variety of exceptional talent handpicked and primed to bring value to new roles across our key focus areas within our respected network of clients.

Taking time off isn't just good for your wellbeing, it's a powerful tool for long-term career success. Stepping away helps you recharge, return with fresh energy, and see your goals more clearly. As many of us return to work after recent breaks, now is the perfect time to reset, prioritise, and plan ahead. Ready to make the most of the months ahead? ## That's a Wrap

As school holidays wrap up and we ease back into our routines, now is the perfect time to pause, reflect, and reset. Whether you're returning from a well-earned break or simply finding your rhythm again, this transitional moment offers a valuable opportunity to check in with your team, revisit your priorities, and plan ahead.

As we move into the middle of the year, taking time to consider not only what your people need - but also what the business requires to thrive - can ensure you're set up for sustained success. Whether that means upskilling your team, workforce planning or strengthening your recruitment strategy, a little foresight now can make a big impact in the months to come.

Until next time, we leave you with our quote of the month:

"Almost everything will work again if you unplug it for a few minutes... including you."

Warm regards,

Community Matters

This May, peoplefusion is proud to stand alongside fellow local businesses in supporting a vital community initiative, raising funds for Lifeline Hunter as a Silver Sponsor of the, now sold out, Women's Wellness Lunch, hosted by Pro-Torque.

Held at the Newcastle Yacht Club, the event will feature Rosie Batty AO as keynote speaker, a powerful advocate for mental health awareness and the prevention of domestic violence. As highlighted by the organisers, many of us already know a woman living with mental health challenges. Recognising and responding to early signs - whether at home, work, or in our communities - is essential to creating a safer and more supportive environment.

peoplefusion is proud to support this important event and looks forward to seeing it make a meaningful impact in raising vital funds for Lifeline Hunter.
